

English

PHS Course Offerings

2021 - 2022

Traditional Path

Freshman - English 1

Survey course focused primarily on narratives

Sophomore - English 2

Survey course focused primarily on argument

Junior - American Literature

Literature course focused on literature of America and literary analysis

Senior - World Literature

Literature course focused on literature and culture of the world

AND/OR

Senior - Effective Communication

Technical writing course focused on communication for the workplace

*Note: Colleges do not recognize this course as an English credit for admission

AND/OR

Senior - Prime/College Class*

See slide 4 for Prime course options

*denotes prime/weighted course

Accelerated Path

Freshman - Honors English 1 & 2*

Two traditional survey courses combined; focused primarily on narratives and argument

Sophomore - American Literature

Literature course focused on literature of America and literary analysis

Junior & Senior

World Literature

Literature course focused on literature and culture of the world

AND/OR

Prime/College Classes*

See next slide for Prime course options

*denotes prime/weighted course

Prime (College-Level) Courses

Advanced Placement (AP) Language and Composition*	Advanced Placement (AP) Literature and Composition*	English 101 & Honors World Literature*
Focused on argument and rhetorical analysis Readings include nonfiction texts: speeches, letters, essays, visuals, books	Focused on literary analysis Readings include fiction texts: novels, plays, short stories, poetry	Focused on argument and literature and culture of the world
*College credit is dependent on exam score. Exam fee is $94.	*College credit is dependent on exam score. Exam fee is $94.	*College credit is earned for earning a "C" or better. Course fee is $300.

*denotes prime/weighted course

Questions?

Please contact your counselor or any English teacher

